

Dear Georgie Heath-Johnson

We trust you are looking forward to Sunday and have found the perfect resting place for your watch (and any other electronic devices, including phones and ipods). This event is unique as everyone has the chance to win the infamous Trevor Ruffell Tusk Trophy (aka The Boar's Jaw).

Your Event Details

We have you registered for the 10km RUN if this is not correct then please email us prior to Thursday the 11th January. Click here to Email Us

Registration

Please arrive at Branford Park at least 30 minutes prior to your scheduled start time. At Branford Park Registration Area you will be given your race number in exchange for your Registration Certificate. Please click here to download your Registration Certificate (pdf) then print and fill in. If you do not have access to a printer, don't panic, as we will have spares available for you on Sunday morning.

Start Times

Half Marathon start times are staggered according to your estimated time as follows:

8.00am = 2.30hrs plus
8.15am = 2.01 - 2.29 hrs
8.35am = 1.46 - 2.00 hrs
8.55am = 1.26 - 1.45 hrs
9.15am = Under 1.26 hrs

9.30am = All 10km Run and Walk Entrants

You will be able to view who else is in your start wave on the competitor list of the event website later this week.

Entries are still open, so encourage those you know to join you on your journey in the Maitai Valley. We will close off online entry capability on Thursday evening.

Event Prizegiving

This will be held at approximately 1pm -At the New Street Steakhouse (formely the Waka) on Collingwood and New Street, Nelson.

Prizes:

Trevor Ruffell Tusk Trophy (for closest finisher to estimate in the Half Marathon)
Top 5 closest to estimate in both Half Marathon & 10km
plus additional Spot Prizes

Your time will be available at the event prizegiving and then later on our website (please don't ask our timing crew at the finish line on Sunday as they can't divulge).

Best regards

The Nelson Events Team
